Where memories were made - and new chapters

Some homes are simply houses. Others become part of the family. Lovingly held by the same owners since day one, this much loved Greenwood home has been the backdrop to decades of family life, laughter and memories. From using the driveway into a makeshift skate ramp to countless backyard adventures, birthday celebrations and everyday moments, this is a home that has truly been lived in and loved.

Built in 1972 and beautifully presented today, it offers the space, practicality and flexibility families need, while its 685sqm R20/40-zoned block adds an exciting layer of future potential in one of Greenwood's most tightly held pockets.
