Comfortable, Convenient and Full of Potential

Whether you're searching for your first home, a smart investment or an opportunity to downsize without compromising on space, this neat and well-maintained two-bedroom home offers an appealing combination of comfort, convenience and low-maintenance living. Set on a generous allotment of approximately 843 square metres and positioned along a quiet street, the home is conveniently located close to schools, a pharmacy and everyday amenities.

Timber flooring features throughout, adding warmth, character and durability while also helping to minimise long-term maintenance. The kitchen is thoughtfully positioned adjacent to, yet separate from, the dining room, providing a practical layout that keeps the kitchen
