Big Family Living in the Heart of Castle Hill

There are family homes, and then there are homes that give a family the space to genuinely spread out. Positioned within the highly regarded Castle Hill Estate, 4 Kingshand Drive brings together something increasingly difficult to find in Murrumba Downs: a substantial double-storey home, genuine multi-generational flexibility and a big backyard, all on a beautifully established 750m² block. From the street, its classic brick façade, established gardens and impressive proportions immediately tell you this is a home of substance. Step inside and that impression only grows.

With approximately 278m² of internal living, the scale of this home is exceptional.

The ground floor has been designed around family life,
