Builder's Own Hampton-Style Family Residence

Built by the builder for his own family, this impressive Hampton-style residence combines generous proportions, quality craftsmanship and thoughtful family design on approximately 643m² in a sought-after Glen Waverley setting.

The home provides excellent space across two levels, with multiple living zones, a dedicated study and four bedrooms, each with its own ensuite and walk-in robe. The ground floor features a formal lounge, separate study and a spacious open-plan living and dining area centred around a well-appointed kitchen with a large island bench and butler's pantry. Large windows and doors connect the main living area to approximately 16.7m² of covered alfresco
