Daniella from Dianella Presents:

An original Zorzi Built quality home! Solidly constructed and designed to stand the test of time, this much-loved home has remained with the same owner since it was built. Generations of family memories have been created here, and now, as the owners begin their next chapter, an incredible opportunity awaits another family to make it their own. The location is something truly special. Positioned directly opposite a stunning park and expansive green oval, the street wraps around the park itself, creating an exceptionally quiet and peaceful pocket with very little passing traffic. It is the kind of setting families search for but rarely find - where the outlook is green, the surroundings are tranquil and your children have an
