Outstanding Golf Course

This well-designed residence offers panoramic views across the golf course and lake, with convenient walking or buggy access to the course.

For those who do not play golf, the property provides a peaceful outlook, no rear neighbours and a private sense of space.

The home was master-built and purposefully designed, incorporating a range of features that are best appreciated through a personal inspection.

Ideally positioned within the estate, the property is a two-minute walk from the riverfront walkway and a five-minute drive from local shops and the community library. The accommodation includes three well-proportioned bedrooms, including a spacious master suite featuring an
