A Rare Opportunity Offering Space, Comfort and Future

Welcome to this property that perfectly combines comfortable family living, generous outdoor space, and outstanding future potential. Positioned on a large block in a sought-after Armadale location, this home presents an exciting opportunity for homeowners, investors, and developers alike.

The property provides plenty of room to enjoy today while offering exciting possibilities for tomorrow. With valuable side and rear access, the block provides flexibility for future improvements, including the potential to build another dwelling at the rear (subject to relevant approvals), complete with its own driveway and front access. This makes it a fantastic opportunity for those looking to secure a property with long-term growth
