Prestigious 725sqm on

There is something special about Byford on the Scarp, and those who know the area well will understand why. Tucked away from the hustle and bustle, yet still within easy reach of the conveniences of Byford, this is one of those locations where the locals know just how desirable the setting can be.

Set amongst larger homes and generous blocks, this impressive 725sqm property offers the space that growing and established families are often searching for, both inside and out.

The home itself is genuinely generous, with four large bedrooms offering excellent space and storage, complemented by multiple living zones that give everyone room to spread out. Whether it is the kids
