First Home, Future Investment or Development

Positioned on a generous allotment in the heart of Elizabeth Downs, this solid brick home presents an exceptional opportunity for first home buyers, investors and developers looking to secure a property packed with future potential.

Combining comfortable everyday living with extensive outdoor space, secure vehicle accommodation and exciting possibilities for further improvement or development (STCC), this is the type of property that rarely stays available for long.

Offering three bedrooms, spacious open-plan living and a functional kitchen and meals area, the home is immediately comfortable while providing plenty of scope to renovate, modernise and add value over time. Fresh
