Popular Hills Retreat

Set amongst the rolling landscape of Serpentine, this substantial 5,721sqm property offers an opportunity to embrace a hills lifestyle while remaining within easy reach of the township and the South Western Highway. Elevated within its setting, the home takes advantage of its position with an outlook across the surrounding landscape, while the generous grounds create plenty of room for children, pets and those looking for additional outdoor space.

Step inside and the home presents a modern country style, combining a freshly painted and decorated interior with character details including wainscoting and a country-inspired kitchen. The open-plan living area provides the central gathering space, with a woodfire
