Space, Flexibility & Family Living

If space is high on your wish list, 11 Boaz Street is well worth a look. Set on a generous 684m² block, this spacious four-bedroom, two-bathroom home offers plenty of room for the growing family, with multiple living zones, a huge games room and excellent outdoor space.

Designed with family living in mind, the home offers a practical layout with plenty of flexibility. The front of the home features a comfortable living area, while the central kitchen is well equipped with ample bench space and storage, making it a natural hub for everyday life.

There are options for two dining areas, with one easily adapted to suit your family's needs as an additional living or family space. A further tiled living area flows from the kitchen, providing even more room to spread out.
