CHARACTER, CONVENIENCE & OPPORTUNITY

There is something unmistakably charming about an older Healesville home, and this character filled weatherboard offers all the ingredients for its next owner to make it their own.

Dating back to around the 1920s and positioned on a generous 836m² (approx.) property, the home combines the warmth and individuality of its era with an incredibly convenient location, just a short stroll from the heart of Healesville.

Inside, the home offers four bedrooms, including a main bedroom with built-in robes, along with two bathrooms, a separate toilet and a practical kitchen featuring gas and electric cooking and a dishwasher.

A generously proportioned living and dining area forms
