Modern Family Living with

There is something wonderfully inviting about a home that feels fresh, comfortable and ready for family life from the moment you arrive – and 70 Sumac Street, Brookfield delivers exactly that.

Beautifully presented and remarkably young, this contemporary four-bedroom residence brings together generous proportions, modern comfort and the relaxed lifestyle that has made Brookfield such a popular choice for growing families.

With four bedrooms, two bathrooms and two separate living areas, the home has been designed with everyday family life firmly in mind. There is room to come together, room to entertain and, perhaps just as importantly, room to occasionally escape to your own corner of the house.
