Coastal Character with a Story

Peacefully positioned in a highly desirable Mollymook street, just a short walk from beautiful Mollymook Beach, this distinctive home offers character, flexibility and a spacious, level 721sqm block.

Built in the 1965 by Maurice Stirling, who later constructed the original building now known as Bannisters by the Sea, the home has a story woven into its unique design.

Originally arranged for dual living, with sections let to visiting tradespeople, its generous layout offers multiple living spaces and plenty of possibilities.

The home comprises two bedrooms, a sun-filled kitchen, separate living areas, a rumpus room, sunroom and four bathrooms. Its quirky floor plan will appeal to buyers seeking something individual, with space to adapt to their
