A WORLD OF YOUR OWN,

There is a moment, as the driveway winds between the gums and the home comes into view, when suburbia feels a world away. Elevated amid established greenery on approximately 2,789 m², this beautifully presented residence brings together generous family living, thoughtfully updated interiors and an outlook that changes from room to room. From the front balcony to the backyard, treetops and distant hills form an ever-present backdrop, with views towards the Dandenong Ranges adding another dimension to this remarkable setting.

That sense of escape follows you inside, where the master suite sits proudly at the front of the home, enjoying an elevated, leafy outlook and space for a sitting area. Built-
