A RARE OPPORTUNITY TO

Some properties are finished. Others give you the opportunity to decide what they become - this unique property firmly belongs in the second category. Set on approximately 2,991m² in a sought-after Yarra Junction location, this established property offers an original lowline mid-century three-bedroom home ready for significant renovation or redevelopment, surrounded by mature gardens, impressive trees and original fieldstone retaining walls. Including an extraordinary four-bay workshop, this is a property with the space, character and flexibility to create something genuinely unique.
