Set on approximately half an acre of flat, usable land in the highly sought after Forest Park Estate on Tamborine Mountain, this four-bedroom home offers room to spread out, beautifully manicured gardens and the chance to add your own finishing touches.

The home features separate media and lounge rooms, creating flexibility for family living, entertaining or working from home. High 2.7-metre ceilings add to the sense of space throughout.

The owners are motivated to sell and ready to meet the market. They are upfront that some work remains: flooring is required in the master bedroom and study and the ensuite needs to be finished. This presents an opportunity for buyers to complete these areas to suit their own style.
