The original Gate-Keepers house

If you're looking for a home with character, a story to be told, with acreage, garden, paddocks, and lovely views across farmland, then here is an opportunity to grow, create and enjoy!

Originally built in 1902 as the railway gatekeeper's house on the Koonwarra railway line, this charming piece of local history was relocated to its current position by bullock team in the 1920's. Today, it sits on 1.2 hectares / 3 acres* along a quiet country road, just a 12-minute drive to Leongatha.

The home features:

Light filled dining and living room with cathedral ceilings, timber floors, wood heater, reverse cycle air conditioner and French doors opening out to the deck, a lovely place to enjoy the garden and views beyond.

The kitchen has a central island bench, with breakfast bar, gas cook top, electric oven, dishwasher, pantry cupboards
