Big on living space, big on

If you have been searching for a home that brings together generous family living, stylish finishes and a sparkling below-ground heated pool, this impressive Kalimna Estate residence deserves your attention. Commanding attention from the street with its striking façade, exposed aggregate concrete and retained garden walls, this substantial four-bedroom, two-bathroom home makes a memorable first impression. Step inside through the oversized front entry and discover a grand hallway, extra-high ceilings and a sense of space that continues throughout the home. Designed with family life in mind, the layout offers plenty of room for everyone to spread out without losing those all-important spaces to come together. The expansive
