Your Little Piece of Guildford

If you love Guildford's old-world charm, buzzing café strip and iconic pubs, this beautifully renovated home deserves a top spot on your list. With its historic streetscapes, antique stores and wonderful array of cafés and restaurants, Guildford offers a village atmosphere that makes everyday life feel a little more special. Think morning coffee at your favourite local, leisurely weekend breakfasts and afternoons catching up with friends over a long lunch.

Just a short stroll from the Stirling Arms Hotel, Alfred's Kitchen, and an array of dining options, this is a place where you can leave the car behind and get amongst it. With Guildford train station approximately five minutes' walk away and the Swan Valley on your doorstep, you're
