Modern Living Meets Everyday

Some homes feel instantly familiar, warm, modern, and ready to hold the rhythm of everyday life. This sleek 2017-built residence in Aveley is exactly that. From the moment you step inside, the clean lines, high ceilings and soft natural light create a sense of calm that follows you from room to room.

The heart of the home is its open plan living space, where stone benchtops anchor the modern kitchen and plantation shutters frame the garden outlook. It's a space designed for connection, morning coffees drifting out to the alfresco, kids playing on the lawn, friends gathered around the dining table, and the breeze moving through the split system air conditioning.
