More Than Meets the Eye |

There's plenty more to discover at 19 Hardman Road than first meets the eye. From its spacious living areas and character-filled interiors to the established gardens, outdoor entertaining spaces and large rear shed, this is a well-presented property with plenty to offer.
Currently leased until May 2027, with the weekly rent increasing to $480 in November 2026, the property also presents an opportunity for investors looking to secure an established rental with tenants already in place.
Inside, the home offers a comfortable and practical layout, with timber-look flooring flowing through much of the property. The main lounge and dining areas provide plenty of everyday living space, while a separate second living area adds something a little different, featuring
