The Family Home You've Been

Some homes just stand out, and this is one of them. Built by Home Group WA in 2018, it offers approximately 220sqm of internal living and close to 300sqm under roof on a 510sqm (aprx) block. With four bedrooms, a study, a separate lounge and a kids' activity room, there is plenty of space for the whole family to spread out.

But its personality really sets it apart. Delightfully unique, beautifully finished and full of charm, it feels like a place to settle into from the moment you walk through the door. Every room has a little something to catch your eye, with the polish of a display home and thoughtful touches that make it anything but ordinary. Picture winter nights curled up by the wood fire and long summer evenings with the barbecue fired up, and everyone gathered around the fire
