UNIQUE FOUR LEVEL LIVING

Offering something truly different, 2/270A Havannah Street presents a rare opportunity to secure a unique four -level residence within the beautifully converted historic Bathurst Water Tower. Originally serving as a reservoir for Bathurst's railway steam trains, this remarkable building has been thoughtfully transformed into distinctive accommodation, with its fascinating history reflected throughout in features such as stained glass windows and historical photographs. The conversion was completed between 2013 and 2019.

Spanning approximately 300m² (excluding balconies, garage and basement), this impressive residence offers four bedrooms, two bathrooms and an incredibly versatile floorplan across four levels. The uppermost level
