Full of Potential

This unique property presents an exciting opportunity for a buyer looking to complete a project where a lot of the hard work has already been done. Featuring a substantial rear extension completed in 2023, the home offers an abundance of space, flexibility and potential. The extension has been constructed on a concrete slab and includes its own separate entry and facilities including kitchenette, bathroom, bedroom and huge open plan living area. The original section of the home requires renovation however, it was re-stumped in 2019 and a new roof was installed in 2024. The remaining work needed to the original part of the home includes, but not limited to plastering, painting, floor coverings and the installation of a new kitchen, allowing the new owner to
