Family Living, Moments From

In a prime position on one of Geraldton's most tightly held streets, this is the coastal family home you've been waiting for.

Built in 2013 by its original owners and immaculately kept ever since, it's modern, low maintenance and ready to move straight into. No projects, no to-do list. Just unpack and head to the beach.

The street appeal is strong. The rendered facade has charcoal-framed windows and a sleek tiled roof. The wide paved driveway leads to a double garage, with gated side access and room for the boat, the van or the trailer.

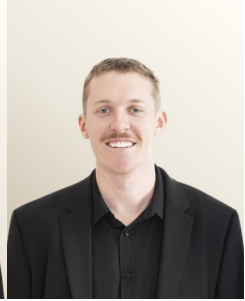

Inside, large format tiles flow through a bright open plan kitchen, dining and family zone. This is where family life happens. The long island bench and breakfast bar are
