Country Soul, Coastal Living

Some places make it easy to imagine a different pace of life. Morning coffee as the sun rises over green hills. Fresh fruit gathered from the garden. A summer swim in your own dam, followed by an evening around the firepit beneath a sky full of stars.

Set on approximately 10 private acres, just eight minutes from historic Milton village, 254A Evans Lane brings these simple pleasures together with a beautifully renovated home, enchanting gardens and the coast close by.

The sense of arrival begins along a sealed driveway bordered by native trees. Nestled amongst established plantings, the three-bedroom residence has been thoughtfully extended and renovated, preserving its welcoming country character while introducing modern
