A Balcony Made for Slow

Picture Saturday morning here. Walk to Midland Gate for coffee and a few groceries, then come home, open the balcony doors and take your breakfast outside. With room for an outdoor dining setting and a timber lined ceiling overhead, this private balcony gives you a space you'll look forward to using, from your first coffee to dinner with friends.
Inside, polished timber floors bring warmth to the open-plan living and dining area, which opens directly onto the balcony. The kitchen is set up for people who love to cook, with stone benchtops and plenty of cabinetry to keep everything within reach.
When the day winds down, the main bedroom has its own ensuite and two built-in robes. The second double
