Character Among the Trees on

There's something about a classic Hills home that helps life slow down. At 48A West Terrace, you can step out onto your timber deck and wrap your hands around a morning coffee and catch glimpses of the city through the branches. What a peaceful way to start the day. With 3,340 m² (aprx) of gardens and lawns to explore, there is barely a neighbour in sight and the kids have room for the kind of childhood where you have to call them twice to come inside.

Come summer, you can picture the whole family here. The kids are in the 12-meter pool while your guests relax in the resort-style pool house. When the weather cools, there's the simple pleasure of heading back up to the house, putting a log on the open fire and settling in
