Lifestyle opportunity with big sheds!

Located mid-way between Buffalo and Fish Creek, near the end of a quiet country road, is this opportunity to secure 2ha / 5acres* surrounded by some of South Gippsland's finest grazing land.
This property will appeal to those who seek an affordable opportunity, that offers great shedding for tradies, truckies or lifestyle seekers with space to create and grow, from gardens to chickens, horses and livestock.
The home is sound, and yes, it needs some love, a freshen up, for some a project, for others, this little gem could be the beginning of their lifestyle country dream property.
The kitchen and dining area is the classic 70's, electric cooking, with solid timber floors leading through to the living room. There have been some alterations over the years, enclosing a front porch creating a study. There are 4 bedrooms with two bathrooms and plenty of storage
