SECURE YOUR OWN PIECE OF

An affordable opportunity to secure vacant residential land in Girrawheen, with two individual lots available. Offering an accessible entry into the property market, these allotments present an exciting opportunity to build a home of your own or secure land for the future, all within an established residential neighbourhood.

Positioned along a quiet, looped street with limited through-traffic, the blocks offer an appealing setting for those looking to create something of their own. With the freedom to explore your building options, there's plenty of potential to make the most of either opportunity.

The location adds further appeal, with local parks, schools, shopping and public transport all conveniently accessible. Ferrara Park is just 650m away, while
