Charming Character Home

Walk to Centenary Park from this charming 1960s character home in sought-after Wilson. The high ceilings and warm, inviting feel make it easy to settle in.
Inside, the front lounge has a gas fire, and the kitchen has a gas oven with electric grill, a 900mm rangehood and plenty of storage. There are two bedrooms plus a sleepout that suits a third bedroom or a study.
Evaporative air conditioning runs through the whole house, with ceiling fans to keep things cool in summer.
Solar panels on the roof add to the home's efficiency.
Outside, the large covered alfresco at the front is ideal for entertaining. There's a carport for two cars and a ramp to the front entry. The big rear yard has a pergola, a gazebo and two sheds (one medium, one large), plus an orange
