North-East to Wide Water

Instructions are Clear - this must be sold!
First time to market in over 30 years, this much loved family home enjoys a prized north-east aspect and 18.1 metres* of wide water frontage.
A large pontoon and direct, bridge-free access to the Broadwater make it an excellent base for boating, while expansive waterfront entertaining areas make the most of the outlook.
Well-built and in good original condition, the home offers a generous floor plan with multiple living rooms and soaring ceilings.
There's plenty of space to enjoy as it stands and considerable scope to update it over time. Extensive off-street parking and garaging add to the home's
