Bushland Backdrop at the End

Tucked away at the head of a brand-new, 12-lot enclave off Queens Road, 7 Hazer Close gives you a rare chance to build in an established northside suburb with something money can't usually buy here: a permanent green outlook.

The block covers 1,711m² across two tiers. Up front is a cleared, level building pad with direct frontage to the cul-de-sac. Behind it, a stone-retained rear section opens onto protected bushland under a registered covenant. That means the tall eucalypts and leafy canopy behind you are there to stay. Nobody will be building in behind you, so you get privacy and a treetop setting while still being minutes from everything.

Hazer Close is a quiet, freshly finished street with new
