Trouts Estate Classic

This fabulous elevated family home in a superb position features 4 bedrooms, all with built in robes and offering independence via the comfort of split system air conditioning. The large Master bedroom has his and hers wardrobes, modern en suite and access to the front patio. The polished timber floors of the combined living/dining area flow through French doors to the beautifully appointed wooden deck large enough for the biggest family celebration and overlooking the newly resurfaced pool. Downstairs the air conditioned rumpus and beautifully appointed bathroom provides additional living space for visitors or the largest extended family, with its own paved and covered outdoor living area. The double garage provides secure parking and the front garden is designed for a boat or caravan. The secure pool area is complemented with a stunning wooden deck and covered outdoor entertainment.
