Elevated, Private and Secluded with Large Viewing Deck

Just up a few stairs from the double lock up garage and a world of tranquillity and relaxations awaits you.

Secluded by its elevation and tree scaped skyline but which captures both city glimpses and mountain views you are in a different world yet your privacy is respected.

The current owners of 37 years are reluctantly moving but with great memories of their original home which has seen the family grow up and move on with the property now needing a new owner just to put their own stamp on the property and call it their own.

There were plans for a second story for the home aiming to enhance the views and living space which the new owner may consider as an enhancement to the property.

Entertaining is so easy with the spacious living area and kitchen of this
