With a long list of gorgeous character features on display here, it's hard to imagine this beautifully presented Californian bungalow lasting any longer than one or two weeks on the market, so contact your bank manager and get the bank cheque ready!

You'll be excused for falling head over heels in love as soon as you lay eyes on this circa 1930's renovated masterpiece.

Enter through a white picket fence with double gates and meander through the manicured front yard with limestone garden beds. Marvel at the impressive front elevation with half render - half tuck-pointed brick, then feast your eyes upon the beautiful wide front verandah, the perfect spot to relax and enjoy a glass of grape juice in the afternoon. Step inside and you're greeted with a central entrance hallway featuring stained glass to the front door, high ornate ceilings and fresh
