Why buy a painting when you can have this view?

If you have ever wanted to watch the beautiful sunsets and have never been able to afford it, then don't look past this absolute beauty.

From the rear verandah/patio of this four bedroom and two bathroom home you will be mesmerised by the outlook as you enjoy a cool beverage after a long day at work.

Located in the high risen suburb of Mount Tarcoola, this beautiful house has plenty to offer. With an open plan design featuring a raised dining area, a great sized games area and a substantial lounge of which all have full height glass windows stretching across to take in the view.

The kitchen is functional and opens to the living area with a breakfast bar. Leading down to the front of the house are the three minor bedrooms, bathroom, laundry and a home office which could be the fourth bedroom. Of course then there is the master bedroom with a lovely ensuite including a large spa bath.

With plenty of lawn space at the rear and front of the house and a double car garage, this home is perfect for the family or even for the couple that require a low maintenance lock up and leave very special home.

Security system, a timber protected covered hot water system, water filter system and workshop are all additional extras that are not always provided in homes. You won't want to miss out on this top of the world home, as it's the place to rule
