The Strand The Address Is All You Need

Dimensions of significant depth, measuring some 550m², make the most of a setting that offers The Strand's widest views of the city skyline a visual accompaniment to today's appealing proportions and a vital asset if development ideas are pursued, STCA. Ample car parking precedes a versatile free-standing home office, studio or theatre that leads to a residence where generous living/dining areas feature polished floors, the fabulous city sights and a contemporary kitchen with stone benches, Miele and Asko appliances, great storage and an integrated Miele fridge and freezer only six months old. Three bedrooms and a fully tiled bathroom provide immediately appealing accommodation before a garden backdrop highlights the size and the scope of such a hugely sought after setting.
