Consider This!

What a charming little personality this weatherboard cottage has, basking in the sunshine in a quiet street in South Tamworth. Traditionally built, and in original condition, the home has been much loved and well maintained over the years. The large backyard is perfect for kids or pets and is home to a huge shed, large enough for a car or two and a workshop area. With some exterior paint and your own personal touch this property has so much to offer to the first home buyer or investor in its quiet locality close to the schools and shops. Three comfortable bedrooms, spacious lounge room and Kitchen/dining overlooking the grassy backyard. This property is sure to catch the eye of those looking for a great value property with loads of potential to really make it your own. It's a delight!
