101 Carpenter Street, Quarry Hill

Poised for a fabulous future!

Located in the extremely sought-after area of Quarry Hill, this period home offers buyers the opportunity to secure a home with character. This three bedroom brick home offers the opportunity to move straight in, yet it offers exciting scope to improve if so desired. You will be impressed by the double pitched roof line, rendered façade and the arch's orating the thick brick columns, these features are complimented by the timber framed lead-light windows and front door. Stepping through the entrance hallway, the period home is true to it's original design, you flow straight into the living room that's complete with a timeless pendant light shade. The meals area features both exposed brick and rendered walls, timber ceiling boards also flow through to the kitchen, the cupboards are of timber finish and dishwasher is also installed.
