Your Private Oasis Surprise Package Await

This property is located close to public and private hospitals and within walking distance to park, schools, local shops, child care centre and transport. The interior is recently repainted and has new flooring installed. The spacious air conditioned open plan lounge/dining/kitchen area features plenty of cupboard space with electric appliances. There is also a separate home office/living space and two covered alfresco timber decks. Three carpeted bedrooms have ceiling fans, main has air conditioning and two have built in robes. There is a family bathroom with separate toilet and internal laundry. The property has security screens, double carport and is fully fenced. Pets upon application.
