A Solid Gem

PLEASE NOTE The existing contract on this property is subject to certain conditions and as such we are still encouraging inspections. This two bedroom gem is solid, flood free and ready to move into. The property is very low maintenance and is in a suitable location. Close to schools and public transport this home is right for the older person or for the small family wanting to enter into the property market.

There are two large bedrooms, a reasonable sized lounge room and combined dining and kitchen. The kitchen has a walk-in pantry with ample storage and a small breakfast bar.

Out the rear of the property there are some established gardens and ramp access to the home. Get into the property market today, this little gem awaits you!
