Location is Key. Situated on a 786m2 corner block with 3 garages and access to the rear this imposing double brick and tile home has all the space you need for the growing family. With multiple living areas there is the opportunity for quiet times while the younger members of the family are zoned away. During meal times there is a centrally located kitchen down stairs where the family can gather round or for you to entertain guests.

There are ocean views from the upstairs area which include bedrooms, activity room and study.

Outside there is an entertaining deck and lawns and gardens are established.

This property is in one of Geraldtons most sought after locations and this is your opportunity to secure a family home at an affordable price.
